Paddy Venner is a qualified life coach with UK and USA accreditation, working currently in around 20 Norfolk schools doing one-to-one and whole-class sessions, with his dynamic Activ8 Life skills program aimed at Year 5's and 6's which he has run in over 170 classes, and his course for boys with behavioural problems and bullying tendencies, Man By Choice. Paddy has also done extensive work with High Schools and specialises in raising self-esteem and aspiration levels. Paddy is safeguarding trained and carries a portable current DBS. He is married with two adult sons.

Paddy has an engaging style in coaching people and his work has yielded results that include raised attainment levels, greater aspirations and healthier self-esteem. Paddy has mentored children with ADHD, anger problems and learning difficulties, as well as having experience in grief counselling and dealing with victims of varying forms of abuse.

He works closely with schools and in some cases, families themselves, to equip young people and adults for the future.

He also sees private clients and runs an adult life skills course, Elevate, on request.

Some Comments from Schools:

"The year 6 children absolutely loved the sessions that Paddy has done with them. The feedback has been great." - Ryan Freeman: Head of Peterhouse Primary Academy, Gorleston

"Pupils said how much they enjoyed Activ8, and how this taught them to know their own strengths and accept others' differences." – Ofsted Lead Inspector Nick Butt

"Covering a broad range of issues, our year 6's have come away with strong moral messages. I have never known the arrival of a person to our school to be so looked forward to by the children" - Mark Jones, Phase Leader, Queens Hill Primary School
