MAGIC BREAKFAST ON INSTAGRAM!

On Wednesday 19th March we will be visited by a micro-influencer, Laura Francis (@dinky_in_norfolk) who will highlight the work the school does with Magic Breakfast.

We will have a small film crew in school from 8am on Wednesday who will be filming and Laura will be chatting to some of the children.

SCHOOL COUNCIL NEWS!

The School Council have been finding out what the children think about our lunchtimes!

They found that there is always something on the menu that the children like!

They also have decided that the school could do with another piece of play equipment so they will be the ones deciding what Mrs McCarney should buy next!

Eva's Achievement in Literacy Competition

We are thrilled to share that Eva, in Year 4, recently came 3rd in a national literacy competition.

This was a short story competition for ages 7-14 organized by the National Literacy Trust.

Eva's story about Ulo the dragon earned her an impressive 3rd place finish and as a result she was awarded 24 books for our school!

Eva entered the short story competition last year and found out on World Book Day that she had come 3rd for her story about Ulo the dragon. Her dream is to one day see her work published and we're hopeful that her love of writing and incredible imagination will help her achieve that goal. Since then, Eva has entered the 'Be the Change' competition with a persuasive writing piece. She knows these competitions are extremely competitive but loves sharing her ideas with anyone who'll listen. She hopes to share any success with her classmates if she's fortunate enough to win.
